

KEY IDEAS AND DETAILS

R	E	A	D
Think about the setting of the story. What can you infer about the setting based on the details provided by the author?	Write at least three inferences that you can make about a character based on his/her actions, dialogue, or thoughts.	Choose one piece of character dialogue. What can you infer from this dialogue?	Choose a section of the story where the character feels a strong emotion. Describe the emotion and explain in detail why they feel that way.
Determine a possible theme of the story you just read. Provide evidence from the text that supports your reasoning.	Summarize the story you read with a Somebody, Wanted, But, So, Then format.	Create a story elements graphic organizer and fill it in with the characters, setting, and plot of the book.	Read a poem. What is the main topic of the poem? How does the speaker feel during the poem and about the topic? How do you know?
Choose an important character from the story you read. Describe the character in depth using examples of the character's thoughts, words and actions.	Choose an important event from your story. Describe the event in at least 5 sentences using details from the story.	Describe the setting of the story you read. Use specific details from the text to support your description.	Create a graphic organizer to describe the characters, setting and plot of your story in depth.
Write three statements about your story following this format: I can infer _____ because the text says, " . "	Create four questions using Who, What, Why, or How. Then answer the questions using explicit details from the story.	Read a play. Summarize each scene in the play. Then write one overall summary statement for the entire play.	Read a poem. Summarize each stanza of the poem.